Letter Affirming that our Prior Petition Request for TV Close Caption is Still Up-to-Date

Attention: CGB Room 3-B431

In the Matter of:

Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL in Longmont, CO, Petition for Undue Burden Exemption from Close Captioning Requirements.

PETITION

Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL in Longmont, CO submits its request that the commission grant its petition for Undue Burden Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements regarding its video 30 Minutes Program.

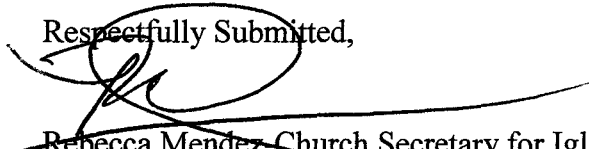

UNDUE BURDEN IMPOSED BY CAPTIONING REQUIREMENTS:

The cost of captioning will impose an undue burden on Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL in Longmont, CO and due to the significant difficulty and expense such a process. Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL has been advised by Telemundo that the cost of providing captioning for the 52 weeks would cost $325.00 per episode, amounting to an expense of approximately $19,900.00 per year. Telemundo recently provided us with a lower quote for captioning as you will see by the attached proposal.

Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL has made many attempts to solicit assistance from advertisers to help cover the cost of close captioning without success. The program average is start up companies with right advertising budgets.

We hope that someday Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL will be of the category of producers who can offer to absorb the cost of production to worthwhile services such as closed captioning. Wherefore, Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL respectfully affirms its request that the Commission grant its petition for Exemption from Closed Captioning requirements based on Undue Burden, due to the significant difficulty and expense, and provide Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL with such other and further relief as the Commission.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rebecca Mendez Church Secretary for Iglesia de Cristo MI-EL Longmont

1. As you can see by our financial profit and loss statements we already spending close to 15% in Evangelizing-Advertising the Good news of Jesus Christ. If we had to pay for Closed Captioning we would have to spend over 18% of our church's income. This is quite expensive.
2. Iglesia de Cristo (Church of Christ) MIEL has been advised by Telemundo and Caption Colorado that the cost of providing captioning for the 52 weeks would cost $325.00 per episode, amounting to an expense of approximately $16,900.00 per year. We air two episodes, CRISTO VIENE, every Sunday 12am morning. The actual expense would be $33,800.00
3. We have sought additional sponsorship sources against our better judgment. Our ministry relies solely on membership tithes and offerings and not so much on charity and/or donations. We prefer not to have sponsorship sources as this would take time away from our true focus as every minute counts and frankly two 30-minute episodes is not a lot of time. Our true focus of the episodes is the souls that are being impacted by the word of God. We want to glorify Gods name and not commercialize our program. Caption Colorado has offered a decrease on the Closed Captioning Service. The fee came down from $525 per half hour show to $325 per half hour show; however they could not provide any funding services to our organization.
4. Per your requirements, we did seek sponsorship with several local companies whom of course required airtime during our episodes. Said companies being, The Rock Multiple Services, Juan Rodriguez Cleaning LLC, Fancy Fashion's Boutique and Kurt's Dry Cleaners none of which are able to help out at this time.
5. This program is very important to the Hispanic community. We have included a testimony of 6 members that have been impacted by the television episodes that we have aired. In fact, we have reached many lives through this program including people that have called us at the brink of suicide or feel they don't have anyone to turn to. This program gives people hope. We hope these letters can help transmit why it is important that we continue to air. We would so much displeasure to have to discontinue airing our program

Dear Pastor Villalobos,

This is to advise you that the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (CGB) of the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") has reviewed your petition for exemption from the closed captioning rules. CGB has found that your petition provides some, but not all, of the information needed for us to make a determination as to whether or not the FCC closed captioning requirements would be economically burdensome for you. Specifically, your petition is lacking the following information:

- Documentation of your financial status sufficient to demonstrate your inability to afford closed captioning – for example, profit and loss statements or bank statement information (This should not just include the resources devoted to or the costs associated with the television program at issue.);
- Information on the impact that providing captions would have on your programming activities, for example, the extent to which your programming might not be shown if you are required to provide captions; and,
- An affidavit (i.e., a written sworn statement made under oath before an official attesting to the truthfulness and accuracy of the petition) or must be signed under penalty of perjury.

If you do not file this additional information by August 17, 2012, or the information that you provide is still not sufficient for us to make a determination, your petition will be dismissed without prejudice to re-filing on October 16, 2012, which is 90 days from the date of this letter, and you will be required to begin providing closed captions for your programming on October 17, 2012.

Here is information that may help you better understand how the FCC processes individual requests for captioning exemptions:

THE PETITION PROCESS – What a Petition Must Contain

The FCC's process for handling closed captioning exemption petitions has multiple steps. CGB is responsible for reviewing and deciding the merits of exemption petitions.

When CGB receives a petition, it must first determine whether a petition contains sufficient information to be placed on public notice (i.e., released to the public) so that the public can comment on its merits. CGB looks to whether the petition contains up-to-date evidence, supported by affidavit.

to show that it would be economically burdensome to provide closed captioning for the specific programming for which an exemption is sought. Section 713(e) of the Communications Act and the FCC's rules at 47 C.F.R. § 79.1(f)(2) define "economically burdensome" as "significant difficulty or expense." In determining whether the provision of closed captions will cause significant difficulty or expense, these provisions require the FCC to consider four factors: (1) the nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming; (2) the impact on the operation of the provider or program owner; (3) the financial resources of the provider or program owner; and (4) the type of operations of the provider or program owner.

In order to prove that the provision of closed captioning would impose an economic burden when applying the above four factors, a petition must contain the following:

1. Documentation of the petitioner's financial status sufficient to demonstrate the petitioner's inability to afford closed captioning – for example, profit and loss statements or bank statement information (This should not just include the resources devoted to or the costs associated with the television program at issue.);
2. Information about the costs associated with captioning the specific program(s) for which the petitioner is requesting an exemption;
3. Verification that the petitioner has sought closed captioning assistance (e.g., funding, services) from its video programming distributor, including the extent to which such assistance has been provided or rejected;
4. Verification that the petitioner has sought additional sponsorship sources or other sources of revenue for captioning, and that, even if these efforts have not successfully produced assistance, the petitioner does not otherwise have the means to provide captioning for the program(s); and,
5. Information on the type of the petitioner's operation(s) and the impact that providing captions would have on its programming activities, for example, the extent to which its programming might not be shown if it is required to provide captions.

Each petition should contain a list of the program(s) for which an exemption is being sought and it may describe other factors that the petitioner deems relevant to an exemption determination, as well as any alternatives that could be a reasonable substitute for the closed captioning requirement. Finally, each petition must be accompanied by an affidavit - a written sworn statement made under oath attesting to the truth and accuracy of the petition - or be signed under penalty of perjury.

We advise petitioners to carefully review the FCC's recently adopted Memorandum Opinion and Order, Order, and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in Anglers for Christ Ministries, Inc., which can be found at <http://transition.fcc.gov/cgb/dro/caption.html> and corresponding FCC rules (47 CFR § 79.1(f)(2)-(3)). These documents describe the requirements for obtaining an economically burdensome exemption in detail.

THE PETITION PROCESS – What Happens When a Petition is Sufficient or Deficient

If CGB determines that the petition provides sufficient information upon which to make a determination of whether or not to grant a closed captioning exemption, it will place the petition on public notice in CG Docket No. 06-181 at <http://fjallfoss.fcc.gov/ecfs/>. Members of the public will then have 30 days to file comments on and/or oppositions to the petition, after which the petitioner will have 20 days to respond. At the end of this timeframe, CGB will review the petition, along with information provided in any comments and responses received, to determine whether providing captioning would be economically burdensome for the petitioner. While a petition is pending, the program at issue does not need to be captioned.

If, however, CGB determines that the petition and supporting documents do not provide sufficient information needed for the FCC to make a determination as to the merits of its petition, the petition will be considered deficient and CGB will not place the petition on public notice.

YOUR PETITION

As noted above, CGB has determined that the petition that you filed with the FCC on June 9, 2010, and updated by your letter filed June 4, 2012, is deficient because, although it provided some information, it failed to provide sufficient information for us to make a determination as to whether the provision of closed captioning would be economically burdensome for you. In this regard, we note that your petition contained information about the costs associated with captioning the specific program(s) subject to the request and, verification that you have sought, (i) closed captioning assistance from your video programming distributor and (ii) additional sponsorship sources or other sources of revenue for captioning. We conclude, however, that your petition is not sufficient to be placed on public notice at this time. As mentioned above, if you wish for your petition to receive further consideration for a closed captioning exemption for your programming, you must supplement your petition by filing the information listed on the first page of this letter. If you do not file this additional information by that date or the information that you provide is still deficient, your petition will be dismissed without prejudice to re-filing on October 16, 2012, and you will be required to begin providing closed captions for this programming on October 17, 2012.

If you decide to supplement your petition, your petition, as well as any supporting financial information provided, will be available for public inspection. If your petition contains confidential information, you may request "confidential treatment," i.e., that it not be shared with members of the public, pursuant to FCC rules. See 47 C.F.R. § 0.459. If you provide information for which you want "confidential treatment," you must also submit a second version of your petition with the confidential information redacted (this must be submitted along with your request for confidential treatment). The redacted version will be publicly disclosed. If your request for confidential treatment is granted, the "public version" of your petition must still contain sufficient documentation to support your claim that closed captioning would be economically burdensome. This documentation is needed so that the public understands the basis for your exemption request and can comment on its merits.

If you have additional questions pertaining to the filing of an exemption request, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Instructions for Filing a Supplement to a Closed Captioning Exemption Petition

You must send the FCC an original and two (2) copies of the information supplementing your previously filed petition for a closed captioning exemption. Filings must be sent by hand or messenger delivery, commercial overnight courier, or by first class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail.

For U.S. Postal Service mail, including Express Mail, Priority Mail, and First Class Mail, please use the following address:

Office of the Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
Attention: Disability Rights Office, Room 3-B431
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

For commercial overnight mail, such as Federal Express or United Parcel Service, please use the following address:

Office of the Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
Attention: Disability Rights Office, Room 3-B431
9300 East Hampton Drive
Capitol Heights, MD 20743

Electronic filing and faxes of petitions will not be accepted.

Please wait at least two weeks before contacting FCC staff to make inquiries about whether your petition has been received. You must include the case identifier number at the top of the acknowledgement you previously received, which is also at the top of this letter, in all correspondence with the FCC regarding your petition.

My name is Miguel Chavez, and through this letter I affirm that I have attended, and continue to attend Televisie Jesucristo Palabra Miel for 3 years and running. The church, and the congregation have helped me greatly, in getting to know God. As I watched the Palabra Miel program on TV one day, I decided I would call and let God change my life.

I was a heavy drinker, and I had nothing to look forward to in life, until Jesus Christ came to my life, and changed me. My wish is to ~~never~~ return to my life before Christ, so everyday I try my hardest to keep moving forward with God by my side.

I ask that you please keep Palabra Miel's program on TV because I know that it can help alot of people just as much as it has helped me to know God in this blessed church.

Thank you

Sincerely,

I was living in Montbello when I first saw the program Cristo Viene. Now here I am living in Longmont. I feel our Lord's presence has changed my life. I watched the program Cristo Viene every Saturday until I felt our Lord calling me. I have been attending Longmont's Jesuchristo's church for 4 months. People I know have told me I'm a different person. If the program Cristo Viene is discontinued many people will not have a opportunity to be saved by our Lord.

Sincerely,
Tomás Ambajal O.

To whomever it may concern,

Through this medium I wish to express as follows:
My name is Maria Guadalupe Mendoza, and it's been three years since I came to the Church of Jesus Christ Palabra Miel

Three years ago, I was in a very hard situation. I was lost in alcohol, and in the desperation of having no way out. I was rapidly becoming mad, and death was near me.

As I cried in my sorrow, one night, I tuned into TV Azteca's channel on tv, as Iglesia de Jesucristo Palabra Miel's program was coming on. Pastor Nestor Villalobos preached as follows: "Stop fighting with your own strength. Christ is willing to pull you out of the emptiness of desperation if you let him into your heart..." This message impacted my life so much that I wrote down the phone number, and called immediately. They treated me like no ever had, and since then I serve my Lord; Jesus Christ. All fears, doubts, sadness, and desperation have left me, I am no longer lost to addiction. Jesus transformed my life, and continues to do so. I no longer want to die. I want to live, and now I want to do God's will, and help people the way I was helped, with the Love of God.

That is why it is very important that this program continues airing, so that other men and women can continue coming to God's father, and have their lives changed. I ask that you keep the TV program, please.

Hi my name is Juan Beltran, I would like to share with my brothers and sisters that I came to this church by means of the television program, my wife saw the program and she came first because our lives were very empty, full of addictions and bad habits that were not correct before God. Our marriage was in a crisis and we were at the point of getting a separation, the law separated us also by means of jail time; but I accepted Christ who is Lord and savior of my soul and my life and we are now happily married and God gave us a special great gift which is a son who's name is Emanuel and we have formed a family that pleases God, we have happiness and lots of joy. What a blessed ministry we have thanks to Christ, with respect to the television program, it helps people who are in need of Christ because a lot of people don't know about this powerful and celestial gospel that we are experimenting, thank you Jesus Christ. A lot of people watch this program because they are curious or because they need to hear of something that is greater than their problem and God speaks through this program by our pastor, his helpers and through the Holy Spirit. We cordially invite you to continue watching the program and that many souls can come because Christ loves them and I have been attending this church "Jesucristo Palabra Miel" for 11 months.

Buenas tardes mi nombre es: Juan Beltran H, Bueno lo que yo les quiero compartir a mis hermanos que yo llegue por la television, mi esposa ve el programa y ella llevo primero por que nuestra vida era muy lucia llena de vicios y manias que no eran correctas delante de dios estabamos en una crisis matrimonial y aparte de separarnos las autoridades nos separaron Varios meses en carcel. Pero yo acepte a mi cristo que es mi señor y mi salvador de mi alma y mi vida.
ahora somos felices nos casamos y Dios nos regalo un regalo tan grande un hijo y se llama Emanuel y hemos formado una familia agradable a los ojos de dios tenemos mucha felicidad y mucho gozo. Bendito ministerio que tenemos gracias a Cristo en cuánto el programa ayuda mucho a los necesitados de Cristo por que muchos no saben de este evangelio dan poderoso y celestial que nosotros eslamas experimentando gracias Jesucristo.
Afectaria a muchas personas por que muchos lo ven por curiosidad otros por que tienen necesidad de escuchar una palabra mayor que su problema y Dios habla en este programa por medio de nuestro pastor por medio de nuestros ancianos y por medio del espíritu Santo. Les hacemos una cordial invitacion de que sigan viendo el programa y puedan llegar muchas almas Cristo los ama.
y tengo 11 meses en la iglesia de Jesucristo palabra miel.

God bless you, my name is Karina Beltran. I'd like to share with you all that one day I had a lot of problems in my marriage, I had addictions and bad habits that were not pleasing before God, I would find myself thinking that my life had no solution and I'd ask myself if I would die in my walk of life but one day, I turned the television on looking for something to motivate me and in between so many channels, I heard and saw the program: (Cristo Viene/Christ is coming) and through the program, the Holy spirit spoke to me and I started crying uncontrollably and something told me to call and I called despite the fear I had of being rejected because the type of life I was living, but it was a blessing that they listened to me and told me that "Christ loves me".!! I started going to church and my husband would make fun of me, he would be mean to me and humiliate me but I never gave up. My problems grew worse and worse and I decided to leave him forever but a sister from church told me that if it was God's will, he would take him away from me and if not, God would save him according to how great my faith was no matter how big my problem was. I decided to follow God and the ways of my Father and now I am not alone because now I have a great God!! a great family, but my husband never gave up when he saw my walk with God, when he saw the reality that Jesus Christ gives us hope to change our lives and he decided to accept Christ as his personal savior and now we both congregate at this church "Jesucristo Palabra Miel" and we are very happy, we got baptized, got married legally and are now parents to a little boy named, Emanuel that means "God is with us". Blessed is the mercy of God for the great work he has done in our lives and now I just want to serve and love Him and live everyday appreciative to him because of where and what he saved me from.

I think that it would affect greatly if the program is cancelled because there are a lot of people that need this type of program because they could be going through a divorce, violence, ill feelings, vanity, drugs, etc., thinking that they don't have a solution and that everything is impossible, but there is a God of mercy and hope who can do everything.

Psalms 18:46: The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of my salvation, Dios les bendiga mi nombre es - Korina Beltran.

yo quiero compartirles que un dia en problemas matrimoniales vicios y cosas desagradables delante de dios yo me encontraba pensaba que mi vida ya no tenia solucion y preguntaba que si iba a morir al transcurso de mi caminar, pero un dia encendi la TV. tratando de buscar algo de motivacion entre tantas canales escuche (cristo viene) y por medio de los libros, el espiritu santo me hablo y me despertó en llanto y algo me decia llama, llama apesar del temor por el rechazo de mi caminar pero fue una bendicion que me atendieran y me dieran (CRISTO TE AMA). Comense ir a la iglesia y mi esposo se burlaba, me maltrotaba y me humillaba pero no me di por vencida pero los problemas se agradaban mas y mas y decidi que lo dejaria para siempre pero una hija me dijo si es de dios te lo va quitar y si no dios te lo va traer conforme tu fe sea muy grande no importa cuan grande sea su problema. y decidi estar en los caminos de mi padre y ya no estoy solo ahora tengo un dios y una gran familia.
pero mi esposo no se dio por vencida cuando vio mi caminar la realidad que jesusristo nos da una esperanza de cambiar de vida. y decidio aceptarlo como su salvador ahora los dos nos congregamos en iglesia de jesusristo palabra miel.

First of all, I would like to give thanks to my Lord, and God,

For putting me in this path, I really don't know where I would be right now, or what would have become of me. IF I wouldn't have found or discovered this place. where I have found and ~~felt~~ felt God's presences.

In the past (6) six month that I have been in Iglesia de Jesu Cristo Palabra Miel in Longmont. I have really felt different, better, physically, spiritually, and mentally. By hearing the word of God, it fills that internal void, and heals you spiritually and physically. What else can I, say but thank you God, for everything and thank you Jesus for my salvation.
